

April 20, 21, 22, 24 & 27, 28, 29, May 1

By Fred Carmichael

A Comedy Murder-Mystery with a hilarious tip-of-the-hat to the mystery plays of the Twenties complete with sliding panels, robed figures, wills being read at midnight, and more. Four ingenious murders take place in an island mansion as a pair of elderly detectives set to work on their first case. The ever-popular storm, the unexpected guests, the cryptic poem, and the missing fortune all add to the intricate and inventive mystery off which the laughs bounce.

Directed by Kyle Morr

Produced through special arrangement with Samuel French

July 27, 28, 29, 31 & August 3, 4, 5, 7

By Neil Simon

At a large, tastefully-appointed townhouse, the Deputy Mayor of New York has just shot himself. Though only a flesh wound, four couples are about to experience a severe attack of Farce. Gathering for their tenth wedding anniversary, the host lies bleeding in the other room, and his wife is nowhere in sight. His lawyer, Ken, and wife, Chris, must get "the story" straight before the other guests arrive. As the confusions and mis-communications mount, the evening spins off into classic farcical hilarity.

November 4, 5, 6 & 11, 12, 13

Book by Terrence McNally Music & Lyrics by David Yazbek While spying on their wives on "Girls' Night Out," a group of unemployed steelworkers sees how much they enjoy watching male strippers. Jealous, out of work and feeling emasculated, the men come up with a bold way to make some quick cash. In preparing, they find themselves exposed; not just physically but emotionally. As they conquer their fears and prejudices, the men discover they're stronger as a group, and it gives them each the courage to "let it go." Based on the hit film, The Full Monty, a ten-time Tony Award nominee, is filled with honest affection, engaging melodies, and the most highly anticipated closing number of any show.

Directed by Paul James & Becky Loughridge

Produced through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI)
