

February 1, 2, 3, 4 & 8, 9, 10, 11

By Henry Lewis, Jonathan Sayer & Henry Shields

A farce of epic proportions, this hilarious play within a play is part Monty Python, part Sherlock Holmes that's guaranteed to leave the entire family aching with laughter! Welcome to opening night of The Murder at Haversham Manor, where things are quickly going from bad to utterly disastrous. This whodunit has everything you never wanted in a show—an unconscious leading lady, a corpse that can't play dead, and actors who trip over everything (including their lines). Nevertheless, the accident-prone thespians battle against all odds to make it through to their final curtain call, with hilarious consequences!

Directed by Paul James

April 25, 26, 27, 28 & May 2, 3, 4, 5

By Joe DiPietro

Nick is a single, Italian-American guy from New Jersey. His parents retired and moved to Florida. That doesn't mean his family isn't still in Jersey. In fact, he sees both sets of his beloved (but annoying) grandparents every Sunday for dinner. When he announces that he's been offered a dream job that will take him away, the news doesn't sit so well. How could he betray his family's love to move to Seattle, for a job? Well, Frank, Aida, Nunzio and Emma do their level best to stop him, and that includes inviting to dinner the lovely—and single—Caitlin O'Hare.

Directed by Ken Clark

August 1, 2, 3, 4 & 8, 9, 10, 11

By A.R. Gurney

Two friends, rebellious Melissa Gardner and straight-arrow Andrew Makepeace Ladd III have exchanged notes, cards, and letters with each other for over 50 years. From second grade, through summer vacations, to college, and well into adulthood, they have spent a lifetime discussing their hopes and ambitions, dreams and disappointments, and victories and defeats. But long after the letters are done, the real question remains: Have they made the right choices or is the love of their life only a letter away?

Directed by Pamela Cilek

Presented through special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

Oct 31, Nov 1, 2, 3, & 7, 8, 9, 10

Music by Mary Rodgers, Lyrics by Marshall Barer

Book by Jay Thompson, Dean Fuller, and Marshall Barer

Many moons ago in a far off place, the truly terrible Queen decreed no couples can marry until her gloomy Prince Dauntless found a bride. Who can be a royal princess? No one, if the queen has anything to say about it. A kingdom-wide search brings the less-than-regal Princess Winnifred who captures the prince's heart. The Queen goes on a mission to come between her son and his soulmate in this retelling of the classic story The Princess and the Pea. Enjoy a musical comedy with side-splitting shenanigans for an evening of "happily ever after!"

Presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals.
