What happens when you mix a sweet grandmother with a saucy secret business? When Bridget moves in with her Nana for the summer, she expects quiet days in New York, but quickly discovers Nana is running an illegal boutique out of her apartment, selling risqué lingerie to seniors! With nosy neighbors, landlords, and the law looming,

Bridget must help her quirky Nana keep the business afloat while trying to avoid eviction—or worse, arrest. Katherine DiSavino's hilarious comedy delivers non-stop laughs in this zany tale of family, mischief, and a whole lot of naughty knickers.

Vanya and Sonia have spent their lives in quiet sacrifice, caring for their family's farmhouse while their glamorous sister, Masha, basks in movie stardom. When Masha returns home with her much younger boyfriend, Spike, chaos erupts. Old wounds are reopened, futures are uncertain, and hilarity ensues, all under the ominous predictions of their quirky housekeeper, Cassandra. Throw in a surprise costume party, voodoo dolls, and a charming young actress named Nina, and you've got a riotous weekend of family drama and unexpected romance.

Book by Joseph Stein, Music by Jerry Bock & Lyrics by Sheldon Harnick Set in the little village of Anatevka, the story centers on Tevye, a poor milkman, and his five daughters. With the help of a colorful and tight-knit Jewish community, Tevye tries to protect his daughters and instill them with traditional values in the face of changing social mores and the growing anti-Semitism of Czarist Russia. Rich in historical and ethnic detail, Fiddler on the Roof's universal theme of tradition cuts across barriers of race, class, nationality and religion, leaving audiences crying tears of laughter, joy and sadness.

Directed by Rebecca Pasley

Presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI).
